Employment Placement Data is provided as of June 25, 2019.
N/A" for the Employment Placement reporting categories means that there were no graduates/completers in the program in the reporting period or the program does not prepare for placement (English as a Second language)
"N/A" for Average Starting Salary reporting category means that there were no graduates/completers in the program in the reporting period or the program does not prepare for placement (English as a Second language).
For graduates that provided an hourly rate, the average wages for each program was calculated by adding together the hourly rates then dividing this number by the number of respondents. To provide a more accurate picture of the average rate, any high or low value outliers were removed from the average rate calculation.
 "N/A" for Took Professional Certification, Passed Professional Certification reporting categories means that either there were no graduates/completers in the program in the reporting period or the program does not prepare for any required professional certifications.
